Comments:

- This was a great class. The information was always turned into a great way to grasp & understand. It is a perfect class for someone who wants to challenge their analytical mind.
- Dr. Gurzick is an excellent professor. He puts forth lots of effort each class to make sure his students both understand the material and know how to apply it effectively in the real world. He also does his best to make each class interesting and with his quirky personality it always is. For example, for our chapter on “Descriptive Statistics,” Dr. Gurzick admitted this was one of the most boring concepts of the year, he applied the material to online dating websites, changing out chapter to Descriptive Statistics of Love. My only complaint is that Dr. Gurzick isn’t teaching all of my classes!
- Overall, Dr. Gurzick made the subject interesting with so much enthusiasm and fun character. Dr. Gurzick could give materials and practice problems with a little more step by step format. He could be a little more responsive for the class as a whole with questions and difficult problems. He could provide more practice with problems so everyone can understand besides just jumping from one problem to the next one (material to the next). The class seems all over the place and unorganized, also.
- A study guide or previous exam to be shown in class before the 1st exam so that the students could have had a better expectation of the exam.
- During lab time the dynamic could be different by demonstrating the way to solve the problem and then providing a different problem as hw.
- Could have constructed lab time more efficiently by giving more step by step examples for excel problem.
- Dr. Gurzick was always willing and available to help with my questions.
- I love Gurzick! He is an amazing teacher and person. He gives examples that really connect with our generation to explain theories and concepts created decades ago.
- This course was my hardest ever. I think this should be for graduate students.
- Thank You. If possible, I would like to have more homework so I can do more practices on the exam.
- Gurzick is awesome! Always prepared, always keeps students interested.
- Great teacher, answered emails extremely fast, very helpful when confused.
- Dr. Gurzick really stimulated interest in the material that may have otherwise been very boring. Dr. Gurzick made excellent provision to be available for outside help and was very accommodating. Excellent course and superb professor!
- With there was a different format for the computer labs. Really liked the teacher, hated the book.
- The textbook is not very helpful since most materials are done in excel but the book only provide formulas and how to calculate problem by hand. More time in lab is recommended.
